SUPPORT GROUPS

A MINISTRY OF

WHAT IS LIFELINE CONNECTION?

Lifeline Connection offers weekly support groups throughout the community for people affected by drug and alcohol addictions, as well as other life-controlling problems.

Our vision is to provide life-giving support using biblically-based curriculum, by connecting people to God and to each other.

WHO WE HELP

- Individuals with drug and alcohol addictions, who may also struggle with other life-controlling problems such as anger or unhealthy relationships
- Families and people concerned for loved ones with addictions
- People who have completed a long-term recovery program who desire ongoing accountability

SUPPORT GROUPS OFFERED

Stepping Into Freedom – Systematically discover how to walk in freedom from addiction.

Concerned Persons – A group to support family members of individuals with life-controlling problems

Anger: Our Master or Our Servant – Overcome unhealthy, unrighteous anger by exploring its roots and by studying how to express it God's way.

The Ultimate Journey – An in-depth inventory of one's past, in which lies once believed are confronted with God's truth, to bring life-changing healing

Hang on,
there's hope...

BECOME A FACILITATOR

Do you have a passion to help hurting people?

Learn how to use your experiences and gifts to minister to people with life-controlling problems. Participate in a two-part training that will prepare you to lead Lifeline Connection groups.

Part One:

- Four phases of addiction
- Walls and defenses
- How to effectively facilitate small groups
- Enabling and codependency
- How to partner with Teen Challenge and participate in a Lifeline Connection ministry.

Part Two:

Experience firsthand one of our life-changing groups and allow the Holy Spirit to bring truth and healing to prepare you for leadership.

If you would like to host a group or become a trained facilitator, contact our Lifeline Office at:
